

'After Nine Eleven': Ethics in the Time of Terror

Workshop – 24 June 2005

Monash Conference Centre
30 Collins St, Melbourne

PROGRAM

- 10.00am Registration
10.15am Welcome and Introductions
10.30am Session 1: 'Counterterrorism – Whatever it Takes?'
- 'Dirty Hands and Lesser Evils in the War on Terror', Alex Bellamy.
 - 'Ethics and Intelligence: is There Honour among Intelligence Gatherers?', Hugh Smith.
 - 'Training Torturers: a Critique of the "Ticking Bomb" Argument', Jessica Wolfendale.
- 11.30am: Roundtable discussion
12.00pm Lunch break
1.30pm Session 2: 'International Dimensions'
- 'New Wars, Failed States and the Sources of Terrorism: How the North Views the South', Richard Devetak.
 - 'September 11 and Cultural Equality', Baogang He
 - 'Democratic Peace is Democratic War: the Use and Abuse of Kant in Humanitarian Intervention and the "War on Terror"', Jeremy Moses.
- 2.30pm Roundtable Discussion
3.00pm Afternoon tea
3.30pm Session 3: 'Freedoms and Security'
- "'Balancing" Security and Liberty: a Critique of Counterterrorism Rhetoric', Christopher Michaelson.
 - 'After Anthrax: Ethics in the Time of Bioterrorism', Christian Enemark.
- 4.10pm Roundtable Discussion
4.30pm Future of the Ethics of War and Peace Working Group
5.00pm Workshop concludes

For further information: Richard Devetak (Monash) (03) 9905 2357 or
Christian Enemark (ANU) (02) 6125 7915