Identification of Courses and Course Fees 2008

A course is defined by the Academic Board as a unit of instruction approved by the University as being a discrete part of the requirements for a program offered by the University.

Each approved course of the University is identified by a sequence of eight characters, consisting of a four character alphabetical prefix which identifies the subject area, and a four digit numeric suffix which identifies the course. Each course has a unit of credit value defined.

Course identifiers are approved by the Registrar and the system of allocation is based on the following guidelines:

1. A four character alphabetical prefix is used to indicate the subject areas. This usually correlates with the authority offering the course (normally a School of the University), but in some cases identifies subject specialisations or cross-disciplinary subject areas.
2. Each course identifier is unique and is not used for more than one course title.

Courses taught are listed in full in the Online Handbook. The subject areas and organisational units for each identifying alphabetical prefix are also described in the specialisation pages in the Online Handbook.

Course Prefixes and Associated Fees Per Unit of Credit (UOC)

A standard session academic load is 24 units of credit (48 UOC per annum).

Fees for courses are charged by unit of credit according to the classification of the course (that is undergraduate, postgraduate, research) and then the classification of the student.

To calculate the charge for a course - refer to the course prefix, appropriate course classification and student classification to determine the fee per unit of credit.

Non-award courses will also be charged according to the classification of the course as above.

For Example: An International student is enrolling in a Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences course, ARTS1001 which has a value of 6 units of credit and the course is classified as undergraduate. The fee for this course will be 6 x $400 = $2400.00

The fees listed are applicable to students who commenced study from Summer Session 2003 onwards.**
