Our analytical capabilities

The School of Humanities & Social Sciences at UNSW Canberra is a national concentration of strength and international reputation in military and defence force history. Our staff edited the Oxford Centenary History of Australia in the Great War and authored three of its volumes; Peter Stanley's book Bad Characters won the 2011 Prime Minister's prize for Australian history; and Craig Stockings is currently Official Historian of Australia's campaigns in Iraq, Afghanistan and East Timor. Our researchers bring expertise in:

- AIF and ADF operational history and campaigns;
- European military and conflict history;
- The Great War;
- Frontier conflict and history in Australia;
- Climate history and conflict;
- Military biography.
